SCHOOL REPORT.

In complying with the terms of the law in reporting the schools the past year, we would say that we are happy to state that the scholars have made commendable progress in the studies pursued and have applied themselves to their studies with a good degree of earnestness and studious attention, and in most cases have complied cheerfully to the will of their teachers in the discipline of the schools. The teachers have been energetic, thorough and practical in their instruction, endeavoring to instil into the minds of their pupils the idea of self-reliance: that they must rely on themselves in committing their lessons to memory, and in reciting them; that they must rely on their own ideas for expression, and not too much on the text books for their thoughts; have their lessons thoroughly committed to memory so that they can retain the subject in their minds without referring to books for the subject matter. In saying this we do not wish to be understood but what there has been more work accomplished in some schools than in others, but all, both teachers and scholars; have done themselves credit in the amount of work performed.

The town voted a liberal supply of money for the schools, which told very plainly at the closing examination for the good of the schools. If we could have a less number of school houses, so as to divide the school money into a less number of parts, making more money for each division without raising any more money, we think it would be for the benefit of the whole town. There can be but one opinion of the value and actual necessity of the common school system, and a liberal provision, a firm support and maintenance on the part of the public, is clearly evident.

A radical change has not been attempted in regard to the text books furnished the schools. In looking over the books in the district we found a great number of geographies were needed, therefore we concluded to make a change at the present time as being better for the schools, although making a greater expense at this time, yet in the end a great saving to the town, for in a short time the change would have to be made and paying a much higher price for the books. We have endeavored to be economical for the town and yet do justice to the schools.

We wish to say as a compliment to the teacher in Division No. 8, that for the benefit of the school, four weeks this year and six weeks last year were gratuitously contributed by her, which made the school year 28 weeks, 24 weeks being allowed the scholars in the other divisions.

Thanking the citizens for the confidence placed in us, we cheerfully submit the above report.

ERASTUS R. BOYCE,	} School Board of Sunapee.
